Thai Pads High Quality Grade A PU leather! Sold in pairs.

Our high quality, grade A, PU leather Thai pads are the very best your cash can buy!!! We supply these Thai pads to a variety of gyms all across Australia. These Thai pads are essential for any workout regimen and are sold in pairs. The material used to make these pads is 100% of the finest grade PU leather. The PU leather construct makes them reliable and durable and ready to stand up to the most rugged of workouts. Their multi-layered design of foam and EVA padding provides the greatest level of safety and comfort in their use. The clever construct and design makes them tough but noticeably lighter in weight than other top brands.

Comments like, "Your pads are lighter and have better absorption than the top competitor Thai pads," is an example of the usual feedback that we receive about our pads.
