

20kg Olympic Barbell (700lbs Rating)

RRP: $414.95

When you train for strength and power, a basic barbell is essential. Randy & Travis Machinery's 20-kilogramme Olympic barbell has a 700-pound rating and is one of the finest all-around barbells on today's market. Built to fine weight tolerances, this sturdy barbell is perfect for both gym and home use.

A top-quality barbell at a low price, this strength training aid features precisely machined end sleeves that fit with Olympic plates, with minimal tolerance. The barbell achieves a smooth spin rate from its brass bushings coupled with inner end bearings. Internal circlips lock the barbell's end bearings and end sleeves firmly in place to prevent any lateral movement.
