

4 Watch Box Display Travel Case PU Leather

RRP: $59.95

Elegant yet rugged, this gorgeous brown watch case from Randy & Travis Machinery is the perfect accessory for your dresser top. With slots for four watches, it's perfect for the avid watch collector. Crafted from durable PU leather on the outside and soft velvet inside, this case will protect your valuable watches from scratches and dust. White stitching gives it a sporty look, while its neutral, yet earthy colour blends into nearly every colour palette. Left open, it showcases your watch collection off to perfection.

A zippered closure makes this case perfect for travel. Its sturdy construction protects your watch from damage during baggage handling and storage. Stretchy elastic straps keep each watch in its place. Light in weight, it's the perfect travel case, especially with many airlines imposing strict limits on weight for both checked baggage and carry-ons.

For the watch lover in your life, this case makes a splendid gift. Its elegant styling makes it a perfect choice for both men and women. If you or someone you love needs a special storage solution for their treasured watches, this is an ideal choice. Order yours today!
