

Practice Hand Model for Nail Art Training and Display Manicure with false nails

RRP: $79.95

Whether you're a professional manicurist who wants to hone her skills or just want to learn to do a salon-worthy job on your own nails, this manicure practice trainer by Randy & Travis Machinery is the perfect solution. Crafted from sturdy, yet flexible ABS, this lifelike hand with its spring-powered, flexible 'arm' provides you with a realistic scenario for hours of practice. Just fasten it to your benchtop or tabletop with the clamp and get started with your first manicure.

Reusable and convenient, you can use the included practice nails for gel, acrylic, or wrap manicures. Simply insert the artificial nails into the 'fingers' and then get started with your nail artistry. They're easy to work with, even if you're a beginner. Since they're reusable, simply practise until you get it right. Once you do the perfect manicure, use the 'hand' as a mannequin to display your work. A wonderful gift for the manicurist in your life or to teach yourself, this hand mannequin can help you transform your skills from beginner to skilled practitioner. Order yours today!
