

4 Panel Room Divider Screen Privacy Rattan Dividers Stand Fold

Out of Stock: $209.95

With today's open concept floor plans, sometimes you need to break up all that open space into zones. This gorgeous pine and hand-woven room divider from Palermo is the perfect solution. Its rich brown colour and textural design provide your room with depth and perspective, while its vintage look gives it instant elegance. Its neutral tones pair perfectly with any home décor. Its timeless beauty makes it a valuable addition to home interiors of a wide range of styles. With four panels that can stretch across a significant space, you can create a private reading corner, block out clutter from your guests' view, or divide an entertainment space from the sitting area.

That's not all this versatile divider can do. Waterproof and fade-resistant, you can even use it at outdoor events to carve an open space into 'rooms.' Use it at weddings to set the bride's dressing area apart from her bridesmaids', at trade shows to divide displays, or at outdoor fundraisers to create a sense of elegance behind the bar or buffet. When you're done, simply fold it up and use it in your home or office until the next special event. Its premium construction and durable metal two-way hinges ensure that it will hold up well, even under everyday use. Order yours today!
