

Square-Shaped Table Bench Desk Legs Retro Industrial Design Fully Welded - White

RRP: $329.95

When you can't get enough of trendy industrial design, these steel table legs from Della Francesca are just the ticket. Designed in a rectangular box shape, their clean lines look great underneath vintage mid-century or even today's contemporary tables.

Crafted from white-coated sturdy steel, these table legs can hold tables up to 300kg. Their neutral colour blends well in any room.

These table legs are fully welded and ready to install. Pre-drilled holes make installation a breeze.
