

2x Rustic Dining Table Legs Steel Industrial Vintage 71cm - Black

RRP: $334.95

If you love rustic décor, these iron table legs from Randy & Travis Machinery can transform an ordinary table or bench into the centrepiece of the room. They're easy to install on an existing table – even if it's your first DIY project. Or, if you're a skilled carpenter, build your own rustic tabletop or bench and finish it off with these designer-quality metal legs.

These heavy-duty A-shape legs provide support for heavy wood planks, as well as heavy items you place on the table. If you are building a bench, you can rest assured that you'll have plenty of support for those seated.

Whatever you place on top of them, these eye-catching table and bench legs will add an on-trend vibe to whatever room you set your new piece of furniture. Get started on your project now so that you can enjoy it all year long. Order yours today.
