

Adjustable Floor Stand Lazy Mount Holder Bracket For 4-9.5in Tablet Phone Stand

RRP: $54.95

If you're like most people in this mobile-powered world, you don't want to miss a text from your best mate, a news clip, or the latest celebrity gossip while you work out or get ready for bed. But it's uncomfortable to hold your phone as you burn calories on the elliptical. And, it's just as awkward to twist and turn to look at it on your nightstand or if you set it on your bed. The solution? This adjustable mobile device holder and stand by Randy & Travis Machinery. Adjust it to just the right angle so you can see it easily from your bed without strain. Then, when you get ready for your morning workout, take the stand with you and position it in front of you as you work out.

There are even more uses for this versatile stand. Use it to conduct Zoom calls while standing or to record music or other videos hands-free, or watch YouTube recipe videos while you follow the video chef's lead and recreate their gourmet dishes in your own kitchen. Adjust it at whatever angle or height feels comfortable to you – it's your choice. Get more use out of your mobile devices with this sturdy, convenient holder and stand. Order yours today!
