

Hands Free Floor Stand Adjustable Bed Clip Holder For Tablet iPad iPhone Switch

RRP: $64.95

If you've ever sat in bed twisting and turning to get comfortable enough to read a breaking news story or play a game on your phone, you know the frustration. Even if you set your device on a nightstand, you'll still have to crane your neck to see what's on the screen. Put all that discomfort and hassle in the rear-view mirror with this adjustable mobile device stand by Randy & Travis Machinery. The universal clip holder adjusts to both tablets and phones in a wide variety of brands, while the stand adjusts to just the perfect height and angle for perfect comfort. With this stand, you can play games and watch videos from your bed, listen to your favourite YouTube video mix as you work out, or conduct Zoom meetings while standing.

That's not all. If you're a musician, amateur YouTuber, or TikTok enthusiast, you can record videos at the ideal angle with both hands free to express yourself through your art or comedic talent. Its sturdy stand keeps the camera still, avoiding the wobbly look of handheld videos. Take it to the office with you as you work on your desktop, reading information on your tablet as you type a report into your desktop word processor. With its small footprint, it takes up little space, even if you work in a cubicle. At only 2.5 kilogrammes, it's easy to carry wherever you go. Completely adjustable in a full 360-degree range and up to 145 centimetres, this stand empowers you to get the maximum value of your mobile device investment. Get yours today!
