

8x Mosquito Insect Bug Repellent Small Bucket Citronella Candles

RRP: $54.95

If you love the outdoors but hate the bugs, this set of eight mosquito-repelling citronella candles will be a must-have for your picnics, campsite, pool party, or al fresco dinner parties. Their clean, citrus scent will only add to the outdoorsy ambience on any occasion. Group them for a unique centrepiece during night-time parties – they can burn for up to 10 hours, so party on, with no worries about bugs biting you or your guests. Designed to look like miniature buckets, they provide the perfect touch for a casual setting.

These candles are all-natural, so you never need to worry about toxic fumes or harsh chemicals on your skin. Flying insects hate the smell of citronella, so they naturally stay away from areas where they sense a citronella odour. Never let the bugs ruin a peaceful warm evening again. Order your set of citronella candles today!
