

Exercise Pilates Bar Kit Resistance Bands Yoga Fitness Stretch Workout Gym

RRP: $89.95

If you're fond of pilates, you understand the privilege of having a good quality Exercise bar kit. The lack of proper resistance bands just ruins the whole motive of strength training. Well, fret no more because Randy & Travis Machinery is providing you with the best, premium quality Pilates Exercise Bar Kit.

Investing in this kit will not only give you the freedom to work out anywhere but will also save you from the hassle of having to search for a variety of resistance bands that are vital to achieving your ideal weight.

For your convenience, this product comes with five different bands made of TPE material. That's right! Now, you have a great opportunity to build muscle strength and tone up your body from the comfort of your home. Don't worry if you have sensitive skin because the latex material used is free from any kind of allergen. As a cherry on top, the handles are cushioned with foam and built with alloy clips to give a strong grip and maximum support.
