

Foldable Wall Hanging Clothes Drying Rack Clothes Balcony Retractable Hanger

RRP: $194.95

Trying to get your laundry dry on cold and wet winter days can feel almost impossible. Laundry has a habit of staying damp too long and you often end up having to re-wash it in order to have clean, fresh clothing. The Randy and Travis Machinery indoor-outdoor clothing rack is the perfect solution to help you get through your laundry, even in cooler climates. Completely collapsible and retractable for easy storage. Simply extend your clothing rack when you need it and then fold it up when you don't. Constructed from super-strong aluminium, this foldable wall-hanging clothesline is corrosion and rustproof, meaning it will last well into the future. Able to hold large loads of clothing, this is the ideal option for a busy home.
