

Frame Sign Sidewalk Sign Board 60x90cm For Advertising Poster Display

RRP: $144.95

Get your message out there with this versatile Randy & Travis Machinery A-frame Sidewalk Sign. Suitable for indoor or outdoor use, this advertising poster display is a freestanding unit that has two faces on which adverts can be inserted. Ideal for use outside cafes, restaurants, pubs, bistros or salons, it's also perfect for any venue advertising an event, special offer, fresh menu choices or anything else that adds value for customers. If your retail facility has a special promotion, advertise it on this poster display frame! Attendees at trade shows, conferences, community events and expos can gain added traction by using this portable A-frame display to promote their goods and services.

Constructed to a high standard using weatherproof steel, the A-frame stand is lightweight enough to be carried and set up by one person. The display boards are slotted in and out, enabling the display to be easily and quickly updated.
