

304 Stainless Steel Suspension Hook Wall Ceiling Mount Hanger Anchor Bracket

RRP: $99.95

Whether you're hanging a punch bag in preparation for a gruelling workout, or suspending a porch swing to relax in once your workout is complete, the Randy & Travis Machinery 304 Stainless Steel Suspension Hook Wall/Ceiling Mount is going to provide the reliable performance you're looking for. This suspension ring can hold up to 1000kg, providing a safe solution for hanging seating, hammocks or swings.

304 stainless steel doesn't corrode, even after prolonged contact with moisture. It's also able to cope with our climate extremes, so if you want to hang a punchbag, rings, or suspension kit in your outdoor gym, this fixing is a great option.

All the fixings are included with the ring, including four suspension bolts. The bolts are an important addition to the ring, helping to give additional strength and stability.
