

Tripod Garden Fire Pit BBQ Barbecue Cast Iron & Steel Fire Pit Bowl Round

RRP: $279.95

There's no denying that spending an evening outside next to your fire pit while some snags are cooking away is one of the best ways that you can spend a warm summer evening. The Randy and Travis Machinery Tripod Garden Fire Pit will take your BBQ to the next level. With an easily adjustable grill height and a solid tripod that can easily be moved aside, you're sure to love the experience of cooking food on your new tripod garden fire pit. It easily converts into a simple fire pit for later in the evening by simply moving the tripod aside where you can keep warm and toasty next to the flames while you're feasting on some marshmallows. The heat-resistant coating and strong cast iron and steel construction mean that this fire pit and tripod will last long into the future.
