

3 Grids Bamboo Food Wrap Dispenser Cutter Foil Cling Film Storage Holder Box Kitchen

RRP: $64.95

If you're obsessed with organisation, a food wrap dispenser is a must-have for your kitchen, helping to keep your drawers neat and tidy. As well as preventing the film from sticking to itself, the dispenser also saves you time. Plus, with this machine, you can always be assured of clean cuts, preventing waste. Thanks to the 2-in-1 design of this Randy & Travis Machinery bamboo food wrap dispenser, it's suitable for both home and commercial requirements.

When it comes to storage, you don't have to worry about where to keep it either. You can hang it on your kitchen wall or on the back of a cupboard door. For added convenience, it's ready to use straight out of the box, with no assembly required. If your stylish bamboo wrap dispenser gets dirty, simply wipe it clean with a damp cloth. Its sliding cutter offers easy dispensing and thanks to the hidden cutting function, you won't hurt your fingers.
