

300D Heavy Duty ATV Cover Storage For Polaris Sportsman 450/570/850/800/500 XP

RRP: $109.95

Protect your ATV from dust, rain, snow, hail, UV light, mildew and more with the Randy & Travis Machinery heavy-duty ATV cover. Suitable for use indoors during long periods of storage, or outside as an overnight cover when you're on the move, the cover is easy to use and transport. It comes with a storage bag, so it can be tidily stowed until required.

The cover is resistant to rain, dew and other forms of moisture. It also keeps dirt and dust away from your ATV and prevents the wind from scouring the paintwork with particles of rock or soil. Ideal for adventurers, the cover is also suitable for use by farmers, landowners and anyone else that owns or drives an ATV.

This PU-coated, woven polyester cover also provides some protection against extremes of heat and cold, helping to protect the ATV's engine and paintwork from temperature variations. This ATV cover will fit most popular ATV makes and models.

Features:

- Sized to fit almost any ATV, including Can-Am, Kawasaki, Suzuki and Arctic Cat branded ATVs
- Water-resistant and tear-resistant

Specifications:

- Material: PU-coated, 300D woven polyester
