

Premium Waterproof Reversible Pet Dog Blanket Bed Protects Couch Bed from Spills

RRP: $89.95

We all love our furry friends, but there's no denying that spills and mess can be a worry for anyone who owns a cat or dog! This fluffy blanket is not only practical, and incorporates innovative spill-protection technology, but is also so comfy it will be irresistible to your pet! You'll have no issues encouraging them to sit on this blanket instead of your favourite pillow or throw – this product from Randy & Travis machinery will become their new favourite!

Features:

This blanket is in stone grey colour which is neutral, so you can match it to any interior design style! This blanket has a unique design and is made from three different layers – sherpa on top, a high-tech waterproof membrane in the middle to help protect from liquid, and a soft plush bottom. For a fun addition to personal your blanket for your pet, there are also iron-on waterproof patches available to buy alongside this item to create the pawfect look!

Specifications:

These blankets incorporate three layers of materials - sherpa, PU water-resistant layer, and flannel. The blanket measures 150x127cm. It can be tumble dried, and easily machine washed on a cold setting, so is easy to clean.
