

Metal Pizza Peel with Foldable Wood Handle

RRP: $54.95

Introducing the Effortless Aluminum Pizza Peel - Your Perfect Pizza Companion At 12x14 inches, this aluminum pizza peel glides effortlessly under pizzas, bread, and pastries, ensuring a seamless transition from oven to table. Its thin, flat design prevents dough from sticking, making it the ultimate pizza spatula paddle.

The foldable wood handle provides a comfortable grip while protecting your hands from the heat. Its foldable feature allows for convenient storage, making it an ideal addition to your pizza oven accessories collection. Crafted from high-quality aluminum, this metal pizza peel strikes the perfect balance between durability and lightness, enabling easy maneuvering while retaining its sturdiness. The 12-inch size makes it suitable for both small and large pizzas, transforming it into a versatile pizza paddle. Beyond pizza, it excels in baking bread, pastries, and other oven-baked goods. Use it as a pizza oven spatula, bread peel, or pastry lifter to elevate your baking experience.

Built to last, Randy & Travis' metal pizza peel with a foldable wood handle is designed for longevity, adding a touch of elegance to your kitchen tools. Take your pizza-making game to new heights with this essential 12-inch pizza peel. Its efficient design and multifunctional capabilities will surely enhance your culinary adventures!
