

3 Panels Microphone Isolation Shield Mic Sound Absorbing Foam Reflector

RRP: $69.95

Introducing our microphone isolation cover featuring three foldable panels, offering adjustable angles for your convenience.

Crafted with sound-absorbing cotton on the inner side, this cover reduces sound reflection during recording, ensuring clearer vocals for your projects.

Versatile in its application, it can be easily fixed on a table, desktop, or microphone stand, adapting to your workspace setup effortlessly.

Designed for portability, its compact and lightweight structure, combined with its foldable design, makes it a breeze to carry wherever your recordings take you.

Constructed with high-quality plastic panels on the outer back side and sound-proof sponge on the inner front side, this cover is both durable and stable, guaranteeing optimal performance for your recording needs.
